

1990s to the Present

Answer each item in complete sentences, and in paragraphs where indicated. Use chapter 21 (pgs. 926-965) to help you answer the prompts/questions. Answer all prompts/questions on a separate sheet of paper.

- I. Map—(Use pages 78-81) Use the attached blank map for this activity. Plot each items on the map, then answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

Bodies of Water

Arabian Sea, Caspian Sea, Mediterranean Sea, Strait of Hormuz, Persian Gulf, Red Sea, Gulf of Aden

Countries

Egypt, Sudan, Eritrea Djibouti, Somalia, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Lebanon, Israel, Iraq, Jordan, Cyprus, United Arab Emrites (UAE), Yemen, Bahrain, Qatar, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Oman

1. Describe the route a ship leaving a port in Greece would likely take to reach Kuwait.
2. Which countries have Persian Gulf Coastlines?
3. Which country has the longest Red Sea coastline?
4. To Which nation does the Sinai Peninsula belong?
5. Which two countries that you labeled are islands?

- II. Key Terms—Explain what each item is and WHY it is important.

1. Bill Gates
2. Contract with America
3. NAFTA
4. Bush vs. Gore
5. Al-Qaeda

- III. Essential Questions—Answer each question in complete sentences.

1. How have personal computers transformed the workplace?
2. Complete the graphic organizer. President Clinton used force in 3 regions of the world. Briefly explain what the issue was for each region.

Region	Issue
Latin America
Middle East
Southeastern Europe

3. Who was Osama bin Laden, and what issues did he have with the U.S. and the West?