

Final Project: Current Issues

Points: 100

Rough Draft Due: Uploaded Monday May 25th, hard copy Tuesday, May 26th

Final Draft of Paper Due: Upload Sunday, May 31st; hard copy Monday, June 1st

Content Standard:

10.9--Students analyze the international developments in the post–World War II world.

10.10—Discuss the important trends in the region today and whether they appear to serve the cause of individual freedom and democracy.

Objective: Students will analyze and gain a deeper understanding of a current issue in American society and in the global society.

Task: Students will select a current issue to research, then create a written analysis of that issue. They will analyze not only the pros/cons of the issue, but all aspects of the issue. There will be a presentation of the issue with the other students who have selected the same topic. (Or a solo presentation if you're the only one with the topic) This is not a debate, per se, but a panel discussion. Presentations will begin June 1st. Rubric for the presentation will be provided.

(Only 2 people per topic)

Paper:

1. 4 full pages; Times New Roman, 12 point font, Double Spaced
