

Chapter 19 and 20 Study Guide

The vast majority of questions for the exam will be derived from the following pages. Although not an all inclusive list, these are the major themes that will be on this week's exam.

- The steam engine and its importance, ppgs. 543-544
- Innovators/Inventors: who were they and why are they important—Cort, Marconi, Pasteur, Owens, Darwin, Einstein, Freud pgs.544, 552, 553, 598, 600
- Industrialization: causes, effects, importance, pgs. 545, 549, 587
- Industrialization of the U.S., pgs. 546-547
- Society in Industrial Britain, pgs. 549, 551
- Conservatism, liberalism, nationalism, pgs.557-559
- Karl Marx: significance and beliefs, p.556
- Congress of Vienna: what was it and why was it important, pgs. 557-558
- Mexico: leaders, independence movement, and after, pgs.577, 581, 583-584,
- Latin America: independence movement, leaders, p.581