

Immigration and Urbanization

Use pages 254-261 to complete the activities below. Answer on a separate sheet.

Map Activity—Use the map on page 256 to answer

1. From which region did the majority of immigrants come?
2. In what year did immigration from northern and western Europe peak?

Differing Viewpoints—Use the excerpt on page 258 to answer

3. According to the cartoon, why were people concerned about the immigrants coming to the U.S.?
4. Which cartoon best expresses your own views on immigration today? Why?

Focus Questions

5. What impact did industrialization have on the working class, the middle class, and the wealthy in the late 1800s?
6. What problems could arise in cities in which political machines controlled all services?
7. Study the photographs on page 259 of the Brooklyn Bridge and Flatiron Building. Why was it advantageous to construct taller buildings rather than purchase more land?

Immigration and Urbanization

Use pages 254-261 to complete the activities below. Answer on a separate sheet.

Map Activity—Use the map on page 256 to answer

1. From which region did the majority of immigrants come?
2. In what year did immigration from northern and western Europe peak?

Differing Viewpoints—Use the excerpt on page 258 to answer

3. According to the cartoon, why were people concerned about the immigrants coming to the U.S.?
4. Which cartoon best expresses your own views on immigration today? Why?

Focus Questions

5. What impact did industrialization have on the working class, the middle class, and the wealthy in the late 1800s?
6. What problems could arise in cities in which political machines controlled all services?
7. Study the photographs on page 259 of the Brooklyn Bridge and Flatiron Building. Why was it advantageous to construct taller buildings rather than purchase more land?