

Timeline of the 1800s

Using the internet, select 8 of the items below and create a chronological timeline. For each, write at least 4-5 facts and describe why it is important. You may use the attached timeline or create your own.

- Mexican American War
- Trail of Tears
- Civil War
- Emancipation Proclamation
- Louisiana Purchase
- Monroe Doctrine
- Dred Scott Decision
- Seneca Falls Convention
- Missouri Compromise
- Andrew Jackson Presidency
- War of 1812
- Nat Turner Rebellion
- John Brown
- Samuel Morse
- Transcontinental Railroad completion
- Alexis de Tocqueville's Democracy in America
- Gold Rush
- 14th amendment
- Chinese Exclusion Act
- 15th Amendment

Name: _____ Date: _____

Timeline

Topic:

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.

An empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an event or date.