Veteran’s Day

Veteran’s Day is a day of remembering the men and women who served in the United States Armed Forces. Take a moment this weekend to research the life of a serviceman who earned the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Task:

1. Use this link to research a serviceman who earned the Congressional Medal of Honor.
2. Use this sheet to write down information about who the soldier was, and what they did to earn the Congressional Medal of Honor.
3. Be prepared to share the soldier’s story on Tuesday.

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________